Dear PPSC Member,

PPSC continually researches the market place to find innovative and cost effective services, products, and programs that can assist you profitably by growing your pharmacy business.

I'm pleased to announce PPSC's new business relationship with Mevesi, a company known for being a leading business intelligence service provider for independent, small chain, and specialty pharmacies. The Mevesi suite of products allows pharmacies to use their data to make better business decisions.

PPSC has had extensive discussions with Mevesi management and we believe this firm can deliver both traditional and creative uses of your pharmacy data to build your business and provide efficient tools to manage your pharmacy.

Please take a moment to view one of Mevesi's upcoming webinars or visit their website at www.mevesi.com to learn more. You can also contact Mevesi directly at 1-800-372-1560.

We look forward to your feedback and suggestions as you consider how Mevesi tools might fit in your business.

Sincerely,
